

❖ Health & Safety Policy

SuperCivil is a West Australian owned company dedicated to mastering all aspects of our civil works operation. From the first point of contact until completion you will experience our safety, quality of workmanship, cleanliness, efficiency and professionalism.

The Health and Safety of those who work either directly or indirectly for SuperCivil & Yongacivil is of the utmost importance to Senior Management and it is our ultimate goal to continually improve health and safety performance within the business.

In order to achieve this, the following commitments have been made by SuperCivil & Yongacivil:

- Provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injury and ill health
- Establish OH&S objectives and continually monitor performance against these objectives
- Identify and fulfil legal and other requirements applicable to SuperCivil & Yongacivil and maintaining compliance with ISO 45001:2018
- Eliminate hazards and reduce OH&S risks, so far as reasonably practicable
- Continually review and improve the OHS Management System
- Consulting and organising for the participation of workers, and, where they exist, workers' representatives
- This policy will be made to all relevant interested parties and reviewed as part SuperCivil & Yongacivil's management review process

Matt McDowell

Director

9-3-2021

Date

QMS Certification Services